

CLERKS OF TREASURY DEPARTMENT, &c.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

A statement showing the number of clerks of that department, and their pay during 1843; and statements from the heads of the several bureaus attached to that department, in compliance with the 11th section of the act of August 26, 1842.

JANUARY 24, 1844.

Read, and laid upon the table.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

January 22, 1844.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit, herewith, the names of the clerks and other persons employed in this department during the past year, with the time each clerk or other person was actually employed, and the sums paid to each, in the statement marked A; together with the statements furnished by the heads of the several bureaus of this department, in compliance with the 11th section of the act of August 26, 1842, numbered from 1 to 12, inclusive.

I remain, very respectfully,

J. C. SPENCER,

Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Second Comptroller's Office, January 1, 1844.

SIR: In compliance with the directions of the Secretary of the Treasury of the 27th of October last, I herewith transmit a list containing the names of the clerks and other persons that have been employed in this office during the year 1843, together with the time that each was actually employed, and the sums paid to each.

In my opinion, the several persons mentioned in said list have generally been usefully employed; and the services of the full number of clerks by law authorized for this office cannot be dispensed with, without detriment to the public service.

I am not aware that the removal of any individuals now employed in this office, and the appointment of others in their stead, is required for the better despatch of business.

With entire respect, &c.,

ALBION K. PARRIS, Comptroller.

The names marked thus (*) are of persons who are not now clerks in this office. It is believed that all have been usefully employed during the time specified; and to what extent those now on the list can be dispensed with, depends upon the action of Congress on the suggestions in the annual report of this office, recently submitted.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE, January 23, 1844.

TH. H. BLAKE, Commissioner.

No. 11.

OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR OF THE TREASURY,
January 3, 1844.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit, herewith, the additional statement called for by your communication of 27th October last, being the one exhibiting the names, compensation, and time employed, of the clerks and other persons in this office, during the year 1843; with such other particulars as are required by the 11th section of the act of August 26, 1842.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

CHS. B. PENROSE,

Solicitor of the Treasury.

Hon. J. C. SPENCER, Secretary of the Treasury.

Statement exhibiting the names of the clerks and other persons in the office of the Solicitor of the Treasury, together with the time employed, and compensation received by them during the year 1843, as required by the 11th section of "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have been usually included in the general appropriation bills, without authority of law," approved August 26, 1842.

Names.	Time employed.	Amount paid.
Benj. F. Pleasants	The whole year - - -	$1,150 00
Basil Waring -	do do - - -	1,150 00
Jos. H. Waring -	do do - - -	1,150 00

AUDITOR'S OFFICE OF THE TREASURY,
Post Office Department, January 6, 1844.

SIR: I have the honor to send you the annual return of "clerks and other persons" employed in this office during the past year, and "the sums paid to each."

So far as I have observed, during my own short service, and from inquiry, I believe them to have been usefully employed; that their services could not "be dispensed with, without detriment to the public service;" and that no removal is "required for the better despatch of business."

Sir, your obedient servant,

MW. ST. CLAIR CLARKE,

Auditor.

HON. JOHN C. SPENCER,
Secretary of the Treasury.
